SALVATION

INTRODUCTION

At one point or another, all Christians have struggled with the question, "Is my salvation secure in Christ?" When you think about it, questioning our salvation is almost like asking God to help us save us.

In this study, we will cover a number of things concerning our salvation in Christ. In theological terms, the word Soteriology is the doctrine of salvation. Salvation is deliverance from the power and penalty of sin, and it's confirmed in Romans 10:9,10. It involves redemption ("buy back" Galatians 3:13,14; 4:5 [we were redeemed from death]); justification (the act in which God declares sinners righteous), and sanctification (the act of being set apart or being made holy). Salvation makes us justified "just as if I'd never sinned," and is instantaneous. Sanctification is a process.
